WELCOME WORDS TO WOMEN.

Women who suffer with disorders peculiar to their sex should write to Dr. Pierce and receive free the advice of a physician of over forty years' experience—a skilled and successful specialist in the diseases of women. Every letter has the most careful consideration and is regarded as sacredly confidential. Many sensitively modest women write fully to Dr. Pierce what they would shrink from telling to their local physician. The local physician is pretty sure to say that he cannot do anything without "an examination." Dr. Pierce holds that these distasteful examinations are generally needless, and that no woman, except in rare cases, should submit to them.

Dr. Pierce's treatment cures in the privacy of your home. His "Favorite Prescription" has cured hundreds of thousands of bad cases. It is the only medicine of its kind that is the product of a regularly graduated physician. Some unscrupulous medicine dealers may offer you a substitute. Don't take it. Don't trifle with your health. Write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., — take his advice and be well.

Mrs. R. D. Monfort, of Lebanon, Warren Co., O., writes: "I have received the 'Medical Adviser.' A crisp, new five dollar bill could not tempt me to part with it."

On receipt of 21 one-cent stamps, to pay cost of mailing only, we will send to any address a paper-bound copy of Dr. Pierce's great 1000-page book, "The Common Sense Medical Adviser." Or, for 31 stamps the same in cloth binding. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Pierce's Pleasant Pellets The Original LITTLE LIVER PILLS, first put up by old Dr. R. V. Pierce over 40 years ago. Much imitated, but never equaled. Little pill, Little dose, but give great results in a curative way in all derangements of Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

DISCRIMINATING LADIES.

Enjoy Using Herpicide on Account of Its Distinctiveness.

The ladies who have used Newbro's Herpicide speak of it in the highest terms, for its quick effect in cleansing the scalp of dandruff and also for its excellence as a general hair-dressing. It makes the scalp feel fresh and it allays that itching which dandruff will cause. Newbro's Herpicide effectively cures dandruff, as it destroys the germ that causes it. The same germ causes hair to fall out, and later baldness; in killing it, Herpicide stops falling hair and prevents baldness. It is also an ideal hair dressing, for it lends an aristocratic charm to the hair that is quite distinctive. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Two Dyspeptics

If you are too fat it is because your food turns to fat instead of muscle—strength. If you are too lean the fat producing foods that you eat are not properly digested and assimilated.

Lean, thin, stringy people do not have enough Pepsin in the stomach, while fat people have too much Pepsin and not enough Pancreatine.

Kodol

contains all the digestive juices that are found in a healthy stomach, and in exactly those proportions necessary to enable the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all foods that may be eaten. Kodol is not only a perfect digestant, but it is a reconstructive, tissue building tonic as well. Kodol cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Palpitation of the Heart and Constipation. You will like it.

Digests What You Eat

Rests the stomach, rebuilds the tissues and gives firm flesh.

Dollar bottle holds 2½ times as much as the trial, or 50 cent size. Prepared at the Laboratory of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, U. S. A.

KILLED THREE PERSONS AND HIMSELF.

William P. Robinson, a house cleaner, of San Diego, Cal., ran amuck yesterday, killing three persons, wounding two others, one of whom died later, and then killing himself.

At first Robinson was said to be crazed with liquor, but later it was said that he had threatened W. H. Doddridge for an alleged attempt to have Robinson shanghaied when he was a sailor. It is said also that he had expressed a dislike for Emma Stewart, who kept a boarding house, and her son, William. Collector Doddridge, who was seriously wounded by Robinson, says he never even saw or heard of Robinson before.

About 8 o'clock yesterday morning Robinson left his house and going to the apartment in the same building occupied by Mrs. Emma Stewart, the landlady, and her son William, rapped for admission. Mrs. Stewart, upon opening the door, was shot through the head by Robinson, who had leveled a rifle. Robinson then entered the dining-room, where young Stewart, who had been seated at breakfast, was just rising from the table. Robinson attacked Stewart immediately, plunging a long knife into his body close to the heart and again into the abdomen. At the second stab Stewart sank to the floor, with blood pouring from his body in a stream.

Robinson then returned to his rooms. Reloading his rifle and leaving his knife, he slipped the revolver into his pocket. He then descended to the first floor, one portion of which is used as a carpenter shop by H. W. Chase. Chase probably saw Robinson enter, but paid no attention to him. Robinson approached close to him and suddenly throwing up his rifle fired, the bullet entering Chase's breast close to the heart. Chase died immediately.

From the carpenter shop Robinson proceeded on his bicycle down Fourth street for several blocks through the business section of the town, with the rifle still in his hand. He went directly to the house of W. H. Doddridge, internal revenue collector, on the northeast corner of Second and H streets. He left his wheel at the curb and ran up the steps to the front door, carrying his revolver in one hand and his rifle in the other. In response to his ring Harry Doddridge, son of W. H. Doddridge, and who is an engineer at the San Diego Brewery, opened the door. Robinson fired his revolver and young Doddridge sank to the floor with a bullet just above the heart. Death followed before medical assistance could be summoned.

Mrs. Doddridge, the young man's mother, hearing the shot and perhaps witnessing the tragedy, ran screaming from the house. Robinson, hearing the screams, started through the house after the woman. As she was crossing the yard the crazed man caught sight of her and fired, the bullet striking her in the back. She fell headlong upon her face in the yard, probably fatally wounded.

W. H. Doddridge, who was in bed on the second floor when the commotion began, jumped or fell out of the window, breaking the bones of his right hand and probably sustaining internal injuries.

Robinson searched the house for more people. When he came to the room just vocated by Doddridge he climbed upon the bed and placing his revolver to his temple fired a bullet which tore off the top of his head.

Veil of Mystety Lifted.

The veil of mystery which for more than half a century hid the identity of the "Veiled Murderess," who died in prison at Matteawan, N. Y., Sunday, has been lifted by the hand of Mrs. Charlotte P. Norris, of Chicago. The so-called "Veiled Murderess" was a classmate of Mrs. Norris at the famous Emma Willard School, at Troy, N. Y., 60 years ago. The maiden name of the woman, who was a puzzle to the authorities ever since her arrest for murder in 1853, was Charlotte Ward. She married an Englishman of rank—Sir Wm. F. Elliott—but she ran away from his home in England two years after the marriage. She came back to America to find the house of her farther, a wealthy Canadian merchant, shut against her. Mrs. Mrs. Norris, though under no obligation so to do, has kept her knowledge of the identity of the "Veiled Murderess" a secret through all the years since her arrest and conviction on the charge of killing Timothy Lanigan and Catherine Lubee in Troy, N. Y., 52 years ago. The Chicago woman went to Sing Sing prison more than 30 years ago to see Lady William, then a prisoner at that institution. She was with her for an hour. When Mrs. Norris came from her talk with the woman convict the prison authorities begged her to tell them who their charge was. She declined, knowing that her old schoolmate did not then wish her identity known.

Attempted to Stop Game.

Mrs. L. S. Slaight, a temperance reformer, of Hutchinson Minn., yesterday announced that she would call the attention of federal officers to what she terms a violation of the American flag, when she attempted to stop a Sunday game of baseball. Clad in rich clothes and with a large American flag wrapped about her, Mrs. Slaight on Sunday entered the Hutchinson baseball grounds, wherein she had had placards posted bearing the words: "To attack the flag of the United States while it is being used in the enforcement of law is, according to the statutes, high treason," and tried to stop a game of ball. A large crowd had assembled to see the game, and the players took their positions. When the umpire called "Play ball!" Mrs. Slaight majestically marched on the diamond and took up a position between the pitcher's box and the home base. The pitcher attempted to curve the ball around her, but failing in this another battery was placed a little to one side. The pitchers began to sling the ball alternately, while Mrs. Slaight skipped from one line of fire to the other, apparently trying to get the American flag hit with a pitched ball. The game was unsatisfactory with a duet of batteries, and finally the crowd swarmed on the field, good-naturedly surrounding the flag-enshrouded woman, the spectators forcing her off the field, flag and all. The game then proceeded unmolested.

"I Thank The Lord!"

cried Hannah Plant, of Little Rock, Ark., "for the relief I got from Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It cured my fearful running sores, which nothing else would heal, and from which I had suffered for 5 years." It is a marvelous healer for cuts, burns and wounds. Guaranteed at E. S. How to Ward Off Old Age.

The most successful way of warding off the approach of old age is to maintain a vigorous digestion. This can be done by eating only food suited to your age and occupation, and when any disorder of the stomach appears take a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets to correct it. If you have a weak stomach or are troubled with indigestion, you will find these Tablets to be just what you need. For sale by Gibson and Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Strictly Genuine.

Most of the patent medicine testimonials are probably genuine. The following recently appeared in the Aitcheson (Kan.) Globe: "Joe Tack, a well-known engineer, running on the Missouri Pacific between Wichita and Kiowa, lately appeared in a big one, with a picture, and when he was in this office today, we asked him about it. He says he had terrific pains in his stomach, and thought he had cancer. His druggist recommended Kodol and he says it cured him. He recommended it to others who were also cured." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and cures all stomach troubles. Sold by W. F. Creighton, 401 King street, and corner Queen and Patrick streets.

Alexandria Gazette AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS

TUESDAY EVENING, MAY 16, 1905.

THE government will purchase material and supplies for the Panama canal in the markets of the world, wherever they can be obtained for the least money. No preference is to be given to manufacturers or dealers in this country, unless the prices of their goods and the cost of transportation make them the cheapest. This announcement, which is certain to raise a storm of protest throughout the United States, was made at the War Department yesterday afternoon, after a conference between Secretary Taft and the executive committee of the canal commission. The action taken is credited to the commission, but it is really that of the administration, urged by Secretary Taft and acquiesced in by President Roosevelt. It is held by Secretary Taft that under the law the authorities charged with the construction of the canal are required to build it at the lowest possible cost. This makes it necessary that, in the matter of material and supplies, the competition of the world should be involved, and in instances where it is found that Europeans are willing to furnish the goods cheaper than Americans the government will purchase abroad, and not in the United States. It is said that 50 per cent. more is charged in America than in Europe for certain materials. The new policy is to be carried through with respect to everything needed by the government in the canal zone. Even in matters of transportation, foreign shippers offering better rates than vessels of the United States will be chartered. As a beginning, it has been decided to purchase two steamships of 6,000 tons in Europe. They will cost about $750,000. The same vessels, it is estimated, would cost $1,400,000 in this country, and the government would be forced to wait for their construction. It is expected that the protected industries of the United States will feel that they have a grievance, and that high protectionists will charge the administration with furnishing an argument in favor of tariff revision stronger than any yet advanced. But it is held by the President that, as the canal law requires the purchase of supplies where they can be obtained cheapest, there is nothing the administration can do but enforce the law.

GOVERNMENT officials at Chicago who are in charge of the investigation into the business methods of the beef trust, which is being conducted by the grand jury, are commenting upon an overwhelming desire for foreign travel which has seized upon many of the heads of employes of every packing concern in the country whose testimony would be of value to the investigators. Secret service men are now engaged in trying to find out if the beef men are seeking to dodge subpoenas or are merely taking their customary vacations. The latter explanation of their absence is the one officially given by the men who do the talking for the beef trust. But government officials think it peculiar that the sojourners abroad, who are scattered in various parts of Europe, Canada and South America, should choose this time for an outing. To a man up a tree their action is at least suspicious.

RAILROAD MEN are just now discussing one of the most important decisions ever handed down by the Supreme Court of the United States upon the matter of freight car discrimination. The court held that, in addition to their power to issue writs forbidding descrimination, the judges of the United States Circuit and District Courts have the right to fix the percentage of cars which railroads must furnish shippers. This decision, which was made public a few days ago, goes far toward ending a state of affairs which would have resulted in the crushing out of many independent mine owners, and is especially interesting by reason of its bearing on the suits which have been filed against the Pennsylvania Railroad by operators, who allege that preference was given to certain mines.

THAT WAS a strange telegram from Chase City, published this morning, stating that a reception had been tendered Governor Montague at the Town Hall yesterday and that the Mayor had issued a proclamation, calling on the people to do honor to the visit of the Governor of the State. But these are strange times.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., May 16.

Former Minister Bowen this morning in person filed with Secretary of War Taft his formal reply to the statement and counter charges made by Assistant Secretary of State Loomis. It is understood that Mr. Bowen takes the position that he did not file charges aginst Mr. Loomis, but merely in personal letters to Secretaries Hay and Taft acquainted them with the gossip circulating in the Venezuelan capital concerning Mr. Loomis, who was his predecessor as United States Minister in Caracas. It is understood also that he denies responsibility for the publication of the charges against Mr Loomis in American newspapers. He absolutely denies any responsibility for the publication of the stories from Caracas reflecting upon the integrity of Mr. Loomis while he was minister at that capital. This raises the direct issued of veracity between himself and Mr. Loomis, the latter having directly charged that Bowen caused the publication of the stories in the New York Herald and with having circulated the stories by telling them to every American who visited Caracas. Mr. Bowen's statement, it is understood, expressly disclaims that he has made any charges against Mr. Loomis. It says that the stories about Loomis were current gossip in Caracas and were the occasion of unfavorable comment regarding the United States in view of the attitude assumed by the administration here in demanding arbitration of the asphalt and other cases while they were still the subject of judicial inquiry in the courts of the country, and also because Mr. Loomis, as Assistant Secretary of State, probably had something to do in determining the policy of the United States in this matter. The stories had been communicated by some of the foreign ministers at Caracas to their home governments and Mr. Bowen concluded that it was his duty to inform his government that such gossip was in circulation, inasmuch as it reflected on the honor of the United States. Mr. Bowen does not put himself in the attitude of a prosecutor and he has not, in his statement, attempted to substantiate any of the charges which rumor has made against Mr. Loomis. Mr. Bowen called the attention of Secretary Taft to the fact that he had forwarded certain papers bearing on this subject from Caracas to the State Department during the last few months. Secretary Taft sent for these papers and handed them to Mr. Bowen this morning so that he might examine them, see that they were the ones he wanted to be included in the presentation of his side of the controversy, and to make such explanation or comment on them as he desired. As soon as this supplementary statement has been prepared by Mr. Bowen it will be submitted to Mr. Loomis for his perusal and response. This, Secretary Taft said, would probably delay for some days the final disposition of the case. Yesterday Secretary Taft was of the opinion that a decision could be rendered by the end of this week.

The Seventh Day Adventists, now holding general conference in this city, have adopted resolutions favoring the removal of the denominational headquarters from Battle Creek, Michigan, to Washington and also favoring the holding of quadriennial sessions instead of biennial as heretofore.

In the hope of effecting a conclusion of the Chicago strike as favorably as possible to the interests of organized labor, President Samuel Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, left for Chicago last evening. Before leaving Mr. Gompers stated that he was going at the earnest soliciation of parties on both sides of the controversy. It is believed that Mr. Gompers will counsel the teamsters to compromise. He has never been an ardent advocate of the sympathetic strike, such as is the present difficulty, except as a last resort.

Secretary Taft announced after the cabinet meeting today that the Russian foreign office had asked the State Department the usual diplomatic question previous to appointing a new representative whether Baron Rosen would be persona grata to the United States. "We replied," said Secretary Taft, "most assuredly or as the Spanish say 'gratissima.'" Members of the cabinet refused to divulge the subjects under discussion at the meeting, further than today that they were largely of a routine character.

Senator Daniel, of Virginia, has abandoned his proposed trip to the Philippines with Secretary Taft.

Stamped to Death.

A dispatch from Roanoke, Va., says that Samuel Burns was killed in a drunken quarrel Sunday at Max Meadows by Chas. Hudson who when Burns was knocked down jumped on him with both feet and literally stamped him to death. Burns lingered for several hours and died in great agony. Burns and Hudson had been drinking together all the morning and had become very much under the influence of liquor. They separated about noon but met later in the afternoon, when they began drinking again. Soon afterward they engaged in a quarrel over some trivial matter and started to fight. Hudson soon gained the better of his opponent and knocked him down. As soon as Burns fell Hudson jumped upon him, and with his boots, it is reported, crushed in Burns' ribs and tore open his abdomen, death resulting soon after. As soon as Hudson realized the enormity of his deed he attempted to escape. He was arrested soon afterward, and was sent to Wytheville, where he is in jail. Hudson has the reputation of being a hard-working and peaceable man except when he is drinking, which has gotten him into trouble before. Burns was reported to have had a good reputation and was not given to drinking to excess. He and Hudson were apparently the best of friends.

A Terrible Experience.

Exhausted and frostbitten, after an experience for 12 days in an open boat and on the ice field 60 miles off Scatterie, two fishermen were rescued by the French schooner Leon Emile, which arrived at North Sydney yesterday. The men, James Bartlett and William Merritt, were members of the crew of the Newfoundland schooner Excelda. On April 29 they left the vessel in a dory to look after the trawls. A dense fog set in and for three days they tried unsuccessfully to reach the vessel. Two days later they reached the great field of ice floes 60 miles off Scatterie. They pulled up their dory on a huge cake of ice and went to sleep. For five days they remained there without sighting any vessel. The weather was intensely cold, and their food rapidly became exhausted. Everything combustible in the dory was burned at different times in order to warm themselves and cook the fish, which was all the food they had, but soon this was eaten. The men kept themselves alive, however, by devouring raw fish which had been caught by birds. On May 10 the fishermen succeeded in attracting the attention of the crew of the French schooner Leon Emile.

Florence Nightingale, the famous Crimean war nurse, was showered with congratulations in London yesterday on having reached her eighty-fifth birthday.

News of the Day.

Dr. William Osler will leave Baltimore today and will sail on Friday to become regius professor at Oxford University.

Lorin M. Saunders, well known as a banker, lawyer, and real estate dealer, and prominent in District of Columbia politics, died at his Wyoming avenue residence in Washington yesterday afternoon.

The Supreme Court of the United States yesterday decided that where a wife had secured a divorce in one State it was not proper for a court of another State to disregard it and grant a decree to the husband.

Mr. William John Miller, next to the oldest member of the District bar in point of length of practice, died yesterday morning about 2 o'clock at his apartments in the Woodley. He was seventy-three years old.

As stated in the Gazette of that day Thomas M. Fields, a lawyer, who was indicted with Andrew A. Lipscomb, also a lawyer, on a charge of embezzling funds of the Washington Beneficial Endowment Association, was convicted in Washington yesterday on the third count of the indictment. He was released on $10,000 bail pending a motion for a new trial and an appeal. The government will call the case against Lipscomb for trial at the earliest opportunity, but it will be deferred until after the conclusion of the Crawford-Lorenz-Machen postoffice case, which will begin next Monday.

POLITICAL.

The voters of Rockingham county were yesterday at Harrisonburg addressed by United States Senator Thomas S. Martin, Lieutenant Governor Joseph E. Willard and State Senator William H. Mann. When the speaking began there were 500 people present in Assembly Hall.

Senator Martin was the first speaker. He defended his record from the attacks of Governor Montague. He advocated the working of convicts on the public roads, and spoke strongly in favor of a federal rate-making bill for railroads. Replying to the charge that he was a railroad attorney, he said that he was opposed now now for re-election by the president of every railroad in Virginia who was taking any active part in the fight. He specifically named the presidents of the Chesapeake and Ohio and of the Norfolk and Western as opposing him actively.

Mr. Willard and Judge Mann followed. Both favored better roads, better schools, federal aid for country roads and a better fiscal system for the State, Mr. Willard stating that the financial system was so bad that, although Sheppard was convicted of embezzling in the auditor's office, it was impossible for the auditor to tell within $10,000 how much the embezzlement really was. He favored two auditors for the State, one a disbursing auditor, the other an auditor of receipts.

Judge Mann said that all three of the democratic candidates for governor favored the same policies, except that they did not agree on the Mann bill. He said that he was attacked on account of that bill, yet no candidate could be found who would say that he would vote for its repeal. The operations of that bill only applied to communities in which there were less than 500 inhabitants, and in which there was police protection. In such communities it had closed 767 saloons out of a total of 798, yet had increased the revenue of the State by $215,000 in two years.

Accident to Special Race Train.

Nearly a score of persons were injured yesterday in the wreck of a special race train on the Long Island Railroad, bound from Brooklyn to the Belmont Park race track, as stated in the Gazette of that day. At Woodhaven Junction, where the Rockaway branch leaves the main line, the locomotive ran into a half-open switch and was overturned and the three forward cars, filled with passengers, left the rails and crashed into each other. All the passengers injured were in these cars.

Engineer Valentine saw the half-open switch as he approached the junction in time to reverse his engine and call to his fireman to jump. Valentine escaped unhurt, but Demitt was struck by the tender and had several ribs crushed.

The coaches behind jammed up against the end of the engine as it flew the track, and there was a fearful crash as they struck. The cars stopped, too, and one of them climbed up on top of the other. The shock was so sudden that the two were switched around in a tangled mass across the main track.

Glass flew in all directions. Every window in the first two coaches was broken, and most of the windows in the rear cars were smashed.

Passengers were hurled against the seats and the sides of the coaches. Bits of glass struck them, and cut them on the face and hands. In the wild panic the crowds surged from windows and doors to the ground.

The accident was said to be due to the fact that the work of installing a third-rail system had interfered with the proper working of the switches at the junction.

Conditions in Chicago.

As a result of yesterday's developments in the teamsters' strike in Chicago the employers predict its speedy end, while the labor leaders assert that the strike will spread and will be aided financially by unions all over the country. An appeal for funds has been sent out by President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor, and this call gives a color of truth to the strikers' assertion. What the employers take as a sign of the end of the strike is a telegram sent by President Shea, of the Teamsters' Union to President Gompers. The message arranged for a meeting of the executive board of the American Federation of Labor to be held in Chicago near the end of this week. President Shea also telegraphed the members of the executive board of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters to come to Chicago forthwith. It is expected that this body will meet in Chicago on Wednesday or Thursday. It has the final word in calling or ending a strike of the teamsters. The officers are the same men who were called to Chicago last year to put an end to the strike of the teamsters at the stock yards, and it is believed by the employers that they have now been summoned for a similar purpose. The employers yesterday operated 2,000 wagons with little interference, many of the deliveries in the residence portion of the city bing made without protection.

Virginia News.

As heretofore stated, the 110th session of the Episcopal Council will begin in Charlottesville tomorrow.

Mr. William Pigott, of Silcott Springs, died on Saturday morning, aged 70 years. He is survived by several children.

Rev. Robert E. Bentley, a retired minister of the Virginia Methodist Conference, died Saturday at his home at Urbanna, in Middlesex county. He is survived by a widow and one son.

Mrs. Sarah B. Paxson, of Leesburg, died yesterday, aged 65 years. She was the daughter of the late Sydney Williams, and is survived by her husband (Samuel B. Paxson), one son and three daughters.

Mrs. Mary Broaddus, wife of Rev. Julian Broaddus, pastor of the Baptist Church at Berryville, died Sunday after a long illness. Mrs. Broaddus, who was a Miss Mary Davis, of King and Queen county, was about 50 years of age.

John Olyons, a young white man in the employ of the Lynchburg Traction and Light Company, while fixing some electric wires in that city yesterday caught hold of a live wire and received a shock which killed him almost instantly.

Mrs. Laura Tucker, widow of John Randolph Tucker, was thrown from her carriage while driving at Louisville, Ky., on Saturday and was severely cut and bruised, besides sustaining internal injuries. It is also believed that several bones were broken. In view of Mrs. Tucker's age—77 years—her friends are fearful over the outcome.

Damage by Lightning.

While Rev. W. F. Dunaway, of Ashland, Va., at 4:15 o'clock Sunday afternoon was exhorting his hearers in Cool Spring Baptist Church, at Atlee, Hanover county, to take Christ as their leader in time of storm, lightning struck the building and injured several persons, besides splintering a part of the floor, tearing a hole through one of the pews, and causing a panic among the congregation. The bolt first struck a large oak tree and then descended into the church by way of the stove-pipe, cutting the bell from its position and making it necessary to bring the services to a close in order that the injured might be quickly taken out and placed in the care of a physician.

During a severe electrical and rain storm which passed over Shenandoah county Tunday afternoon nine cattle belonging to Mr. Jeremiah Wakeman, a farmer near Mount Olive, were killed by lightning while in a field near the house.

During a severe thunderstorm that passed over Winchester and Frederick county Sunday afternoon lightning struck a tree on the farm of John Jauney, near Bunker Hill, Berkeley county, W. Va., and out of a flock of sheep that had sought refuge under a tree, killed seventeen lambs and seven ewes. Twenty-five or thirty persons were shocked by lighting during the storm.

During the fierce wind and electrical storm Sunday evening the barn on the diary farm of Mrs. Bush, in Elizabeth City county, was struck by lightning, and the building, with contents, including a fine horse, farming implements, and several head of cattle, was entirely consumed. The loss will amount to several thousand dollars.

Stunned by lightning in a severe electrical storm Sunday night, Edward Holland, his wife and child, of Suffolk lay unconscious until they were aroused by the falling or the roof, which was burning.

During the thunderstorm Sunday afternoon the house of Mr. Harman, at Duffields Depot, Jefferson county, W. Va., was struck by lightning and burned to the ground.

Ocean Yacht Race.

Today, at 2:15 o'clock, eleven yachts was scheduled to sail from Sandy Hook lightship for the ocean race for the cup offered by the German Emperor.

They are the finest deep-sea yachts ever brought together for a single contest. It will take at least two weeks to decide it.

The finish is to be off the Lizard light in the English channel, a distance from Sandy Hook of about 3,100 sea miles.

This will be the first cross-sea race since seventeen years ago, when the Coronet and Dauntless had their match between Sandy Hook and Queenstown. There will be four English-built boats in the coming race, the Sunbeam, Valhalla, Hamburg and Ailsa, the last named flying the American flag. Germany will have the Hamburg. The others are American built.

All the boats, with one exception, will be sailed by professional skippers. Commodore Robert E. Tod, an amateur and well-known banker, will sail his own boat, the Thistle.

The favorite in the betting is the Atlantic, which will be sailed by Capt. "Charlie" Barr, of cup-defense fame.

The standing record is held by the yacht Endymion, at 18 days 20 hours 36 minutes from Sandy Hook to the Needles.

The names of the vessels are: Valhalla, ship; Apache, bark; Utowana, schooner; Sunbeam, schooner; Atlantic, schooner; Hamburg, schooner; Thistle, schooner; Hildegarde, schooner; Endymion, schooner; Ailsa, yawl; Fleur de Lys, schooner.

State Tax on Vessels.

The Supreme Court of the United States yesterday affirmed the opinion of the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia, sustaining a State tax on the vessels of the Old Dominion Steamship Company. Justice Brewer held "where vessels, though engaged in interstate commerce, are employed in such commerce wholly within the limits of a State, they are subject to taxation within that State, although they may have been registered or enrolled at a port outside its limits."

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

Today's Telegraphic News

Chinese Town Seized by Germany.

London, May 16.—A dispatch to the Reuter Telegram Company from Tokio, says that German troops have occupied Haichu, a town to the south of Shan Tung, China. The German flag was raised and saluted. The report has created a great sensation here, as it is feared that if the story is true, such a change in the status quo in the Chinese situation will cause serious complications in the war between Russia and Japan. Haichu is a town of China located near the Yellow sea, and a trifle over 300 miles north of Shanghai.

London, May 16.—In the House of Commons today Premier Balfour was asked if he had heard of the rumored seizure of a Chinese port by Germany, and he replied that he has not received any information on the subject.

Berlin, May 16.—The dispatch of the Reuter Telegram Company, stating that German troops have occupied Haichu, China, is officially denied.

Tokio, May 16.—It is learned from semi-official sources, that government has received conflicting reports in relation to the rumored occupation of Haichu, China, by a German force. One account speaks of the raising of the German flag over the port, and the saluting of the standard. Another report says that a party of Germans is engaged in making a survey of the port.

Naval Battle Imminent.

St. Petersburg, May 16.—A dispatch here from Harbin states that the newspaper correspondents and military attaches who have been following the armies in Manchuria have all departed for the coast. The opinion prevails in Harbin that a battle will be fought in the very near future on the ocean and the correspondents and attaches have hastened their departure in order to be in a position to get the first news of the struggle. The Agence Russe has received a message from Saigon which says that the fleets of Rodjestvensky and Nebogatoff have united. About the admiraly there is a feeling of general expectancy that a naval battle will be fought in the near future. If the battle does not come naval officials say it will be because Admiral Togo, the Japanese commander, keeps out of the way of his adversaries. The junction of the two Russian fleets is regarded as an assured fact. While positive information is not obtainable the opinion is expressed that Rodjestvensky has already arranged his fleet in divisions and is probably on his way northward.

Situation in Chicago.

Chicago, May 16.—Today dawned with strike clouds hanging more threateningly over Chicago than at almost any time since the Teamsters' Union declared a boycott against Montgomery Ward & Co. At midnight the teamsters' joint council adjourned with the announcement by President Shea, of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, that "Union men will stand pat." A peace commission of five alderman will seek to end the labor strife, today. By a vote of 45 to 20, last night, the City Council adopted a resolution creating a special committee to wait upon the leaders of both sides of the controversy for the purpose of urging that the strike differences be submitted to some tribunal for arbitration.

Mayor Dunne said today: "If this strike spreads and more violence results, it means troops. If it becomes evident that violence has reached a point where the police cannot handle it, I will not hesitate a moment in calling on the Governor for aid." At police headquarters, this morning, a feeling was expressed that active trouble on the streets would resume today, and in consequence provision for 300 additional officers was made to guard an increased number of wagons to be sent out by the employers. In the rank and file of patrolmen there was expressed the opinion that unless a decided change in the situation soon came, the state militia would be in Chicago shortly.

President Shea and a committee had a consultation with Mayor Dunne this morning, at which it was determined to abide by the Aldermanic decision.

Two hundred telegraph boys were attacked by the strike fever this morning and quit work.

A Denial.

New York, May 16.—Daniel O'Reilly, of counsel for Nan Patterson, makes a denial of the statement attributed to Justice Vernon M. Davis, in which the latter is made to say that Nan Patterson lied when she was on the stand before him in her second trial. There is absolutely nothing to warrant such a statement, said Mr. O'Reilly. Abraham Levy, another of Nan Patterson's lawyers, refused to make any statement at present, concerning the remarks of the Justice.

Gomez Dying.

Havana, Cuba, May 16.—General Maximo Gomez, the revolutionary leader, and prominent among Cubans, is believed to be dying. The old soldier has been ill from a complication of heart and kidney troubles and recently an operation was performed in an endeavor to save his life. Blood poisoning set in and his family and friends are alarmed. All the members of the family have been summoned to his bedside.

Disaster to Japanese Vessel.

Tokio, May 16.—The Ninkomaru, a naval auxiliary vessels, has gone ashore off Fusan, Corea, but suffered no damage and it is believe she can be floated at flood tide. The Kinomaru, a vessel of 4,178 tons, struck a mine off Port Arthur on the night of May 11, and sank. The crew was rescued and brought to Osaka, Japan.

New York Stock Market.

New York, May 16.—There were many reasons for selling stocks this morning and practically nothing said that could be regarded as an inducement to make purchases. Among the long list of reasons to sell were the cables indicating that the Russian fleet is still hovering around French harbors in the Eastern Sea, and apprehensions of trouble from Japan. Among the important movements a decline in St. Paul from 176 to 174¾ attracted most attention. Other stocks around the room acted in about the same manner, making early losses, which were followed by recoveries just after the first hour.

Son Lost Mother.

"Consumption runs in our family, and through it I lost my mother," writes E. B. Reid, of Harmony, Me. "For the past five years, however, on the slightest sign of a Cough or Cold, I have taken Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which has saved me from serious lung trouble." His mother's death was a sad loss for Mr. Reid, but he learned that lung trouble must not be neglected and how to cure it. Quickest relief and cure for coughs and colds. Price 50c and $1.00; guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store. Trial bottle free.

The Ocean Race.

Navesink Highlands, N. Y., May 16.—Weather and water conditions for the start of the Kaiser's cup race, from Sandy Hook to the Lizard, were not altogether promising this morning. A light uncertain breeze came out of the southwest, and heavy banks of fog lay over the sea. The sky was cloudy and occasionally a shower would fall.

There were predictions that better weather would prevail by 2 o'clock this afternoon, the time scheduled for the start. As the contest will be one where all conditions of wind and sea will have to be met nothing except a dead flat calm or fog too thick to sail with safety will prevent the starting of the race.

The Kaiser's cup contest, the first open transatlantic yacht race ever sailed, will start from the Sandy Hook lightship at 2:15 o'clock this afternoon.

Eleven yachts are starters in the three thousand mile contest from the Sandy Hook light vessel to the Lizard, off the coast of England. Eight of the entries are Americans, two are English and one is German. Emperor William has also given prizes for the boats finishing second, third and fourth. Within a few hours of the start the yachts will be separated and will not likely see each other again during the race.

The progress of the race may be reported by passing steamships, but even such information will hardly throw any light on the winner. The yachting world has been inclined to pick Wilson Marshall's Atlantic as the winner, but Captain Barr, her skipper, and the sailing master, of the last three cup defenders, declares that all the yachts have a chance except the Fleur de Lys, which he says is too small. The committee will not take the time of the yachts as they cross. The time of the race for all yachts commences at 2:15, which insures every skipper being at the line ready to cross as near as possible to the gun fire. The international rules of the road at sea will govern the conduct of the yachts. In case of postponement of the start, the preparatory signal will be given on the even quarter hour. There will be no time allowances.

The Fleur de Lys, the smallest of the racers, will not start in the contest this afternoon. The little vessel was struck by a mud scow at dawn this morning, and so badly damaged that it was thought unwise to allow her to put to sea without repairs.

Two o'clock found the racers still in Horse Shoe enveloped by a blanket of fog. The starting committee will probably wait until sundown before giving up hope of starting the yachts today. The thickness of fog makes it hazardous to start the boats. The wind was seven knots at 2 o'clock.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Kirk La Shelle, the theatrical manager and playwright, died at his home at Bellport, L. I., at 10 o'clock this morning. Diabetes was the cause of his death.

Reports of trouble which occurred at at Ufa, a town of about 25,000 population in European Russia, on May day have been received. A number of persons were injured and many arrests made by the police.

Official.

AN ORDINANCE to provide for the grading, paving and curbing of Royal street from the south crossing of King street to the north crossing of Prince street under certain conditions.

Section 1. Be it ordained by the City Council, of Alexandria, Virginia, that the Committee on Streets is hereby authorized and directed to have Royal street, from the south crossing of King street to the north crossing of Prince street, from the curb lines to within two (2) feet of the rails of the tracks of the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway Company, with the exception as described in section 6 of this ordinance, graded and paved and to have said street, as above described, curbed in a good and substantial manner, under the supervision of the City Engineer, using for the paving vitrified brick on a six (6) inch concrete base and for the curbing a six (6) inch granite curb, set in concrete.

And the said Committee on Streets shall advertise for ten (10) days in some newspaper published in the city of Alexandria, and in other newspapers or publications should they deem it necessary, for proposals for materials, and they shall do said grading, paving and curbing by day labor, or, if in their opinion the best interests of the City Council of Alexandria will be subserved thereby, by contract under bond, after advertisement, as hereinbefore provided, for materials.

Section 2. Be it further ordained that the said Committee on Streets shall not begin said work or purchase any material or let any contract pertaining to said work until an amount equivalent to one dollar and eighty cents ($1.80) per front foot for three-fourths (¾) of the linear feet of property on said square has been voluntarily deposited with the City Treasurer for defraying a portion of the expense of said grading, paving and curbing.

The said deposits may be in cash or may be part cash and the balance in notes, as may be agreed upon by a majority of the Finance Committee of the City Council of Alexandria, the payment of said notes to be secured in a manner satisfactory to a majority of said committee.

Section 3. Be it further ordained that where property owners on said square have already set curb without cost to the City Council of Alexandria, which, in the judgment of the Committee on Streets and the City Engineer is acceptable for this work, that such property owners shall deposit before the commencement of said grading and paving in cash or in notes, as above set forth, the sum of one dollar and thirty-two and one-half cents ($1.32½) per front foot, for said grading and paving less a rebate of one-half (½) the value of curb, as set.

Section 4. Be it further ordained that where property owners on said square have set curb without cost to the City Council of Alexandria, which curb, in the judgment of the Committee on Streets and the City Engineer is acceptable for this work, if reset in concrete said property owners shall deposit before the commencement of said grading and paving in cash or in notes as above set forth one dollar and thirty-two and one-half cents ($1.32½) per front foot, for said grading and paving, and for the resetting of said curb plus one-half (½) the cost of setting said curb in concrete, and they will be allowed a rebate of one-half (½) the value of the unset curb.

The estimates of value, rebate, etc., are to be made by the Committee on Streets and the City Engineer in each individual case.

Section 5. Be it further ordained that no curb shall be set or reset, and that no grading or paving shall be done within five (5) feet, nine (9) inches of the curb line in front of any property for which the proportionate expense hereinbefore mentioned shall not be deposited with the City Treasurer.

Section 6. Be it further ordained that as said grading, paving and curbing is being done, the Auditor is authorized to draw warrants, from time to time, upon the Treasurer of this city, in an amount not to exceed the sum of three thousand, two hundred and fifty dollars ($3,250) to pay for said grading, paving and curbing, and a sufficient amount of money for such purpose, not to exceed three thousand, two hundred and fifty dollars ($3,250) is hereby appropriated.

Section 7. This ordinance shall be in force from its passage.

Passed the Common Council April 25, 1905.

Mount Vernon.

The condition of the estate and all the association's possessions at the home of Washington are, according to the various reports, entirely satisfactory to the Mount Vernon Ladies' Association. The storms of the winter have done no serious damage to the gardens or the trees in the grounds. In addition to the relics presented last week, the desk left by Gen. Washington to Dr. Craik had been purchased by Mrs. Barret, vice regent for Kentucky, and stands at present in the library. On a plate which is on the side of the desk is found the following extract from Gen. Washington's will, 1790:

"To my compatriot in arms and old and intimate friend, Dr. Craik, I give my bureau (or as it is called, tambour secretary) and the circular chair, an appendage of my study."

A wine glass which belonged to Mrs. Washington, loaned to the association by Mrs. Lawrence Lewis Conrad, through Mrs. Richardson, vice regent for Louisiana, and a decanter which belonged to Gen. Washington, purchased by Mrs. Pringle, vice regent for South Carolina, have been placed among the other interesting relics in the mansion.

The number of visitors to Mount Vernon has increased enormously during late years, or since the completion of the electric railway from Washington. Thousands now pass through Alexandria on the cars to the tomb of Washington in marked contrast to the comparatively few who informer years were transported by steamer.

This was the day appointed for the governor and the Virginia Board of Visitors to pay an official visit to Mount Vernon, but only Col. Thos. Smith, of Warrenton, of the board, was able to be present.

River Notes.

The Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company, which has acquired the property of the old Washington and Alexandria Ferry Company, has brought the burned steamer Columbia to this port and placed her in the dock adjoining the ferry slip. It is not known what disposition is to be made of the burned steamer.

The schooner Lily of the West, loaded with lumber by H. K. Field & Co., has sailed for Fort Hunt.

The barge Edward Fay, with coal for DeW. Aitcheson, has arrived.

The wharf at Liverpool Point, Md., on the Potomac, which has been closed as a public steamboat landing for a year, will be reopened next week.

It is estimated that the shipments of railway ties from this port and other points on the Potomac will this year far exceed any previous year in the history of the business. There are now lying at Alexandria wharves, loading ties, two large vessels whose united cargoes will be about 70,000 ties. At points down the river several smaller vessels are lying, taking ties aboard, and all these cargoes will go to Boston, Philadelphia or other points in the north.

The work of hatching shad eggs by artificial means at the Bryan's Point station of the fish commission service will, it is stated, close this week, the supply of shad from which the eggs are taken having become so very scarce that the station cannot obtain eggs enough to work on.

Weddings.

Mr. Cornelius Haggarty, jr., a prominent young lawyer of Philadelphia, and Miss India Marshall, of this city, will be married at 8 o'clock this evening at the handsome residence on Wolfe street of Mr. John A. Marshall, father of the bride. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. Father Cutler and soon afterwards Mr. and Mrs. Haggarty will leave for a trip through the North. The groom's best man will be Mr. John M. Patterson, of Philadelphia, and the maid of honor will be Miss Daisy Marshall, sister of the bride. The bride's gown will be of white lace and she will carry a shower bouquet of white sweet peas, while the maid of honor will wear white embroidered chiffon and will carry a bouquet of pink sweet peas. The house decorations will be very beautiful, the parlors with maidenhair ferns and white peonies, the dining room with maidenhair ferns and pink roses and the library with ferns and red peonies.

Mr. A. A. Huff, of Staunton, and Miss Florence E. Mullen, daughter of Mr. W. L. Mullen, of this city, were married last night at the residence of the bride's parents', 111 north Pitt street, by Rev. Mr. Fisher. The ceremony was witnessed by a number of relatives and friends of the contracting parties, who were the recipients of numerous useful and pretty testimonials. Mr. and Mrs. Huff left last night for Staunton, where they will reside.

Euchre Party Last Night.

A large crowd was in attendance last night at the progressive euchre party given by the ladies of St. Mary's Church for the benefit of the organ fund of that church. After the games refreshments were served and dancing closed the evening's amusement. The following prizes were awarded to the successful contestants:

Rocking chair, won by Mrs. Patterson; plate, won by Mrs. Breen; picture, won by Mrs. Bendheim; box of paper, won by Mrs. Thomas Hoy, sr.; dish, won by Mrs. Chalk; chafing dish, won by Mrs. Wollberg; handkerchiefs, won by Miss Patterson; vase, won by Mrs. Thomas Fannon; handkerchiefs, won by Miss Edith Bowers; fan, won by Mrs. Luckett; case of pop, won by Miss Ida Creegan; opener, won by Miss Marie Fannon; neckpiece, won by Miss Catherine Brill; umbrella, won by Thomas Fannon; settee, won by Michael Creegan; cane, won by W. H. P. Kelly; dress suit case, won by Edward Hughes; gas stove, won by James Pettey; handkerchiefs, won by George Hayden; case, won by P. F. Gorman, jr; case, won by Mr. Wheatley; manicure set, won by Mr. Nicholson; case won by N. J. Lawler; umbrella won by T. P. Kelleha; preserves won by J. J. Cowhig; picture, won by Harrie L. Wheatley.

Prof. Carlton Padgett's orchestra rendered sweet music during the evening.

Gallery tickets for King Roughbeard can be purchased at Ramey's printing office.

Mr. Caton Withdraws.

Alexandria, Va., May 16, 1905.

To the editor of the Alexandria Gazette:

I beg permission through the columns of your paper to say to my fellow democrats of Virginia, that when I authorized the announcement of my candidacy for the office of lieutenant governor, I did so in good faith and with the intention of remaining in the contest until the result of the democratic primary was announced. When, however, in January last the name of the Hon. J. Taylor Ellyson was mentioned in connection with that office, and I was advised that his candidacy would be announced in the issue of the Times-Dispatch of Sunday, January 15, recognizing his claims upon the democratic party because of long and faithful services as its chairman, on the morning of January 14th I wrote and delivered to you, and authorized its publication, immediately upon Mr. Ellyson's announcement, the following letter:

To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette.

Dear Sir: Having been advised that the Hon. J. Taylor Ellyson, chairman of the State democratic executive committee, has announced his intention to be a candidate before the democratic primary for nomination to the office of Lieutenant Governor of Virginia, and recognizing the fact that Mr. Ellyson, by reason of his long, faithful and efficient services as the chairman of the democratic party, has pre-eminent claims to recognition by the democrats of Virginia; I beg to announce to my fellow democrats and friends that I will not oppose Mr. Ellyson, and, so far as I am concerned, cheerfully accord to him an open field. I beg to thank my friends throughout the State for their many flattering assurances of sympathy and support in my aspiration to fill the office of Lieutenant Governor, and to say to them, that my withdrawal from the contest is actuated by no other motive than my recognition of the pre-eminent claims of Mr. Ellyson upon the democratic party for the honor which he seeks. Very respectfully,

JAMES R. CATON.

On the same day I went to Richmond and took with me copies of this letter for publication in the daily papers of that city, should he announce his candidacy. The announcement of Mr. Ellyson was not forthcoming as expected; but, on the contrary, a few days later he authorized the publication of the statement that he had not been and would not be a candidate for the office of lieutenant governor. This announcement was generally accepted as final, and realizing I had other highly respectable opposition for the honor I sought, I began at once a vigorous canvass of the State by correspondence and otherwise which brought me flattering assurances of support from every city and county in the State, and which were followed by perfecting, in a majority of the cities and counties, of an organization in the interest of my candidacy. After two months or more had elapsed Mr. Ellyson reconsidered his former decision and announced that he would be a candidate before the democratic primary for nomination to the office of lieutenant governor. This announcement came not only as a surprise, but was attended with considerable embarrassment to me because of my recognition of Mr. Ellyson's distinguished services to the democratic party and of my disposition to accord to him the honor he desires. I fell, however, under strong obligations to the many friends throughout the State who had not only pledged me their support, but who had for some time been actively at work in my behalf to remain in the race and could not see how in justice to them, or with credit to myself, I could then withdraw from the contest, and in good faith announced my intention to remain in the campaign to the end. In reaching this conclusion I was not prompted by my ambition to secure the honor to which I aspired, nor was it reached in disregard of the distinguished services of Mr. Ellyson to the democratic party; but, on the contrary, I was then, and have ever been, ready to sacrifice personal ambition for the good of the democratic party, and to give recognition and honor to her faithful servants, and in so announcing my intention to remain in the contest, I was actuated alone by a sense of fealty to my friends throughout the State. Since then, however, I have, by correspondence and conferences with my friends in different sections of the State, become convinced that it is the desire of a majority at least of the democrats of Virginia to honor Mr. Ellyson with the office to which he aspires as an expression of their appreciation of his distinguished services, and that many of my friends, who have faithfully stood by me, and are still willing to stand by me, also feel that Mr. Ellyson is entitled to this recognition by the democratic party, therefore I have concluded to withdraw from the field, and now beg to announce the fact to my friends and fellow-democrats of Virginia. I beg to express my profound appreciation of the cordial sympathy and support I have received from friends throughout the State and to assure them, and each and everyone of them, that they will always have a warm place in my heart and that I shall ever remain their most obedient servant whether in private or public life.

Very respectfully,

JAMES R. CATON.

Personal.

Mr. Frank E. Heisley is quite sick at his home on south St. Asaph street.

Mrs. Eleanor Washington Howard, Virginia State regent of the Daughters of the American Revolution, is in the city and attended the reception given by Mrs. Herbert Claiborne yesterday; also Mr. and Mrs. Lorton's reception.—[Richmond News-Leader.

A dispatch from Savannah says: The Virginia delegation to to the National Travelers' Protective Association arrived here about 4:30 o'clock in fine shape. In the party are the following from Alexandria—O. H. Kirk, R. F. Downham, J. Y. Williams and A. D. Brockett and three ladies—Mrs. Brockett, Mrs. George A. Musbach and Mrs. Stone.

The Episcopal ministers and delegates from this city to the Episcopal Convention which begins tomorrow in Charlottesville left for that city today.

Mrs. D. J. Howell, Miss Loula Smoot, and Miss Virginia Burke will give a tea at the Golf Club house on Friday afternoon, May nineteenth, from 4 to 7 o'clock.

Miss Hortense Leterman, who has been visiting in Philadelphia, New York, Boston and other cities, has returned to her home in this city.

John Jacob, the little son of Mr. Jacob Brill, is very ill at his home on Duke street.

Mrs. Edwin Scott Martin, of Farmville, is visiting Miss Garrett on north Washington street.

Mr. Robert Travers will have for sale at his stall in market tomorrow a fine assortment of sturgeon, tailors, mackerel trout and butter fish.

King Roughbeard.

The title role in this opera, which is to be given for the benefit of the Alexandria Free Kindergarten on Thursday evening, will be taken by Miss Florence Long, who has a beautiful solo, "Poor Little Princess," which she sings with much feeling. The part is most difficult and requires much dignity and grace. The part of the Princess Patricia will be taken by Miss Katherine Waller, who made quite a hit by her solo in "Ma Duzenberry and her Gearls," last Thursday night at Christ Church Parish Hall, and those who heard her will have an opportunity of listening to her sweet voice again, in this difficult part of the shrewish little princess.

The Minstrels Tonight.

The entertainment to be given at the Opera House tonight and tomorrow night for the benefit of the Relief and Reliance companies promises to be a decided success. The solo parts are all in excellent hands, and the chorus singing will be exceptionally strong and good. A feature of the show will be the illustrated songs, Mr. Tom Moore, the favorite southern baritone, rendering the latest pieces. A large number of specialties will be introduced by some of the best talent available. The firemen's song, to be rendered by a large chorus, promises to be a success. Mr Kenneth Ogden will sing the solo parts. The gallery tonight has been reserved for ladies.

The National Cemetery.

Captain J A. Reeves, who was recently appointed superintendent of the National Cemetery, vice Capt. J. V. Davis, who was transferred to Antietam, will be succeeded on the 25th instant by Capt. Gilman D. Crittenden, of Santa Fe, New Mexico. Captain Reeves will be sent to Arlington. The latter, with several assistants, has been busy during the past few weeks in further beautifying the cemetery and preparing it for the Decoration Day services, the programme for which is now being arranged. The grounds and everything therein are now in a most attractive condition.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

George Chichester, arrested by Officer Henderson charged with assaulting Conrad Smith, was fined $5.

James McCann, arrested by Officers Roberts and Henderson charged with assault, forfeited his collateral by failing to appear.

Heavy Fine.

Justice J. E. Supplee at Del Ray, Alexandria county, yesterday evening fined William Mudd $250 and costs and imposed a jail sentence of two months for selling liquor at Brickhaven without a license. The accused plead guilty as charged. Charles Mudd, a brother, who had also been arrested on a similar charge, was dismissed, there being no evidence against him. Mudd Brothers were arrested at Brickhaven on Saturday last. Alexandria county is now "dry," Judge Nicol having recently refused to grant liquor licenses in that county.

Cutting Affray.

A cutting affray took place in the northern part of the city yesterday between Willis Pettit and Herbert Hansborough, during which the latter was slashed on one of his legs by Pettit, who wielded a razor. The trouble originated over some children, Pettit was arrested and in the Police Court this morning he averred that Hansborough was armed with a knife and kicked at him when he was cut. The case was postponed in the absence of material witnesses.

Accident to a Brakeman.

C. C. Suttlefield, a brakeman on the R., F. & P. R. R., stepped from a train at the Fayette street depot today, and later in attempting to board the moving train slipped and fell and the wheels passed over one of his feet. He was taken to the Alexandria Hospital where Dr. Smith amputated a part of the foot.

More Rain.

Copious rains fell again last night which, in addition to those of Sunday afternoon and night, have given impetus to vegetation which had previously lagged by reason of the drought. The temperature today has been more pleasant than that of the past week.

New Firm.

Messrs. Head and Walz, two well known young business men of this city, have purchased a grocery and liquor store of Mr. J. B. Fitzgerald at the corner of Duke and Henry streets and will conduct the business under the firm name of Head & Walz.

A Disastrous Calamity.

It is a disastrous calamity when you lose your health, because indigestion and constipation have sapped it away. Prompt relief can be had in Dr. King's New Life Pills. They build up your digestive organs and cure headache, dizziness, colic, constipation, etc. Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; 25c.

Why Suffer From Rheumatism?

Why suffer from rheumatism when one application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm will relieve the pain? The quick relief which this liniment affords makes rest and sleep possible, and that alone is worth many times its cost. Many who have used it hoping only for a short relief from suffering have been happily surprised to find that after awhile the relief became permanent. Mrs. V. H. Leggett of Yum Yum, Tennessee, U. S. A., writes. "I am a great sufferer from rheumatism, all over from head to foot, and Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the only thing that will relieve the pain." For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Chased by a Man.

Some excitement was caused on King street early last night by a colored woman who was fleeing from a colored man who had assaulted her. She sought the protection of Officer Arrington who accompanied her to the station house in order to swear out a warrant against her assailant. A large crowd of children followed and for a time a multitude surged about the station house endeavoring to ascertain the cause of the excitement.

Entertainment.

Alexandria Council, Junior Order of Mechanics, will give an entertainment next Thursday night after the close of the regular meeting. An interesting musical and literary programme has been prepared for the occasion, and a feature of the evening will be addresses by several ministers of this city.

Name Changed.

Since Mr. Park Agnew has become the owner of the Alexandria Brick Works, on Hunting creek, he has changed their name to the "Bromilaw Brick Works." The plant is situated on the old "Bromilaw" property and Mr. Agnew wishes to preserve the name of the old place.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The registration books were reopened today. But few names were added to the lists.

Thieves last night dug up and carried away a number of flowers growing in the yard of Mr. C. S. Taylor on Prince street.

Judge J. K. M. Norton has sold to Mr. Egbert Thompson a lot on the east side of Henry street between Madison and Montgomery.

During the storm on Sunday evening lightning struck a barn near Vienna, Fairfax county, which was burned together with two horses.

Northbound passenger train No. 10 of the Southern Railway struck and killed a colored man who was walking on the track near Orange last Sunday about noon.

A meeting of the physicians of this section of Virginia will be held at the New Hotel Rammel tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock for the purpose of organizing a medical society.

Mr. E. W. Starnell advertises elsewhere in the Gazette a large and attractive stock of wall papers of all varieties, which during the next few days he will sell at materially reduced prices.

In the Corporation Court today Mrs. Lucy Lee Lunt was appointed and qualified as administratrix of the estate of her husband, the late J. D. H. Lunt, and also guardian of his infant son, Samuel M. Lunt.

Marriage licenses were issued in Washington yesterday to William A. Barbour, of Fauquier county, and Mary A. Reed, of Prince William county; Henry E. Williams and Myrtle V. Trammell, both of Fairfax county, and to Theodore Brooks and Katie N. Tolson, both of Stafford.

A report in circulation this morning to the effect that Miss Sadie Gaines, the 16-year-old daughter of Mr. J. W. Gaines, who lives about three miles southwest of this city, had been missing since she left home for school in this city yesterday morning, proved to be incorrect. Miss Gaines is sick at her home and did not leave the house yesterday.

The falling of a large iron beam being hoisted into position at the new building on E street, near Fourteenth street northwest, Washington, resulted in the injury to two workmen yesterday afternoon, one of whom was A. C. Dean, 38 years old, of this city, who was cut on the leg and head. He received surgical aid at the Emergency Hospital. His injuries are not serious.

Justice of the Peace Elon Behrend, of Kenilworth, Prince George's county, Md., in the preliminary hearing of the case of Arthur Wall, president of the Maryland Telegraph Company, and Percy T. Pumphrey, owner of the property at Kenilworth, on which is located the telegraph company, sent the accused on to court yesterday. The defendants were released on $500 bonds each.

TUESDAY EVENING, MAY 16, 1905.

A Northern Venice.

The old city of Ghent, Belgium, is built on twenty-six islands, which are connected with one another by eighty bridges. Three hundred streets and thirty public squares are contained in these islands. Ghent is famous because Charles V. and John of Gaunt were born there. It has been the scene of many treaties, insurrections and revolts, and it was there the treaty was made terminating the war of 1812 between this country and England.

His Queer Question.

Mudge—What an aggravating habit Wickwire has of answering a question by asking another! Yabsley—I never noticed it. Mudge—Now, for instance, last night I asked him if he would lend me $10. He didn't say whether he could or not, but asked me if I took him for a fool.

Proved Her Sense.

"Sensible girl, that!"

"Never thought her so."

"Well, when she rejected me the other night she said she was sensible of the great honor I did her, and I call that being pretty sensible!"—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Sure to Please.

When the stage manager told the heavy man he was to play a certain part the actor said:

"I have never seen the play. Do you think I shall please the audience?"

"Sure," said the manager. "You die in the first act."

Every man owes every other man a happy face.—Chicago Tribune.

Three Things Desired.

As a result of observation and reflection during a long life touching public men and measures in wide variety I would desire for my country three things above all others to supplement American civilization: From Great Britain, her administration of criminal justice; from Germany, her theater, and from any or every European country save Russia, Spain and Turkey, its government of cities.—Andrew D. White in Century.

The Man and the Place.

"This John Doe must be a turrible bad feller," mused Maw Hoptoad. "He's allus in trouble. I see he's been indicted again. I wonder where he lives when he's to home?"

"I expect he lives in Effigy," chuckled Paw Hoptoad, "the place where so many are hung."—Houston Chronicle.

Uplifted.

"Yer honor," protested the seedy prisoner, "dis is jist a case o' perlice persecution. Dey'se tryin' ter keep me down, yer honor. You ain't goin' ter let 'em keep me down, are yer?"

"Certainly not," replied the magistrate. "I'm going to send you up for ninety days."—Philadelphia Press.

Sure of One Thing.

"The life of an insurance agent," sighed Premyums, "is full of wormwood and gall."

"I hadn't noticed the wormwood," growled the victim.—Cleveland Leader.

No man can answer for his courage who has never been in danger.—Rochefoucauld.

All the Way Round.

Margie—If you don't quit teasing me I'll tell memma, and she'll tell papa, then papa will whip you. Harry—Then I'll cry, and grandma will give me some candy, and I won't give you any.

If you don't see what you want in this world you can ask for it, but the chances are that you won't get it.—Portland (Ore.) Journal.

Gladstone's Unpopularity.

Gladstone was not beloved. He was an institution. How can one love an institution? A member told me that he asked another Liberal why he disliked Gladstone. The reply was, "Oh, he is always so in the right!"—From M. D. Conway's "Autobiography."

A noble heart, like the sun, showeth its greatest countenance at its lowest estate.—Sidney.

Man's Reasonableness

is often as great as women's. But Thos. S. Austin, Mgr. of the "Republican," of Leavenworth, Ind., was not unreasonable, when he refused to allow the doctors to operate on his wife for female trouble, "Instead," he says, "we concluded to try Electric Bitters. My wife was then so sick she could hardly leave her bed, and five [5] physicians had failed to relieve her. After taking Electric Bitters she was perfectly cured and can now perform all her household duties." Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists, price 50c.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Very Best.

"I have been using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and want to say it is the best cough medicine I have ever taken," says Geo. L. Claubb, a merchant of Harlan, Mich. There is no question about its being the best, as it will cure a cough or cold in less time than any other treatment. It should always be kept in the house ready for instant use, for a cold can be cured in much less time when promptly treated. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

There Is a Difference.

The difference between Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar and all other Cough Syrup is that it moves the bowels, thus expelling a cold from the system. This relaxes the nervetissues and by its healing effect on the throat and lungs the cough is relieved—cured entirely. Kennedy's is the original Laxative Honey and Tar and contains no opiates. Good alike for young or old. Tastes good. Sold by W. F. Creighton, 401 King street, and corner Queen and Patrick street.
